

Resources

The following section contains COVID-19 and/or data related resources shared by Canadian and global partners. This is by no means an exhaustive list. To share additional resources, please email metrics@canwach.ca.

Resources are sorted by type, as well as whether or not they are from a Canadian or international source. In addition, we have highlighted those resources focused on gender, data methodology, organizational responses, and more.
